

Ng Yuk Secondary School

It was all fun, games and celebrations at this year's sports day, which was such a big event it covered two days.

The stands were filled with red, yellow, blue, and green to represent our school's houses, where the students cheered on their teams.

All in all, it was the green house that dominated the games; not only were they crowned overall champions of the sports day, they also won the cheering team contest and cheering performance contest. Individual champions included Leung
